

Jeff Kerr

Jeff Kerr is a dedicated and engaged member of Mayes County, actively contributing his time and expertise to various organizations and leadership roles. With extensive professional experience, Jeff has made a significant impact on both the local business landscape and the betterment of education and public services. Jeff's commitment to his community is evident through his involvement in the Gathering Church, where he serves as a valued member of the Leadership team. His contributions help guide the church's mission and outreach efforts, fostering a sense of belonging and support among its members. Furthermore, Jeff's dedication extends to the CLASS organization board in Chouteau, where he plays an integral role in an enrichment program for the public school. This program has a direct and positive impact on the education and development of the students, contributing to the overall growth and success of the community.

In January of this year, Jeff's passion for community improvement led him to be elected to the Rural Water District Number 6 board in Mayes County. Through this role, he actively participates in crucial decisions that affect local water resources and infrastructure, ensuring that residents have access to clean and reliable water services.

Jeff also holds the position of Treasurer on the Mayes County HOPE board, demonstrating his commitment to addressing important issues such as community health and well-being. His financial expertise and leadership contribute to the coalition's ability to make a meaningful difference in the lives of Mayes County residents.

With a degree in Business and a major in Accounting from Northeastern State University, Jeff's educational foundation has played a pivotal role in his successful career. Having worked for the Bank of Locust Grove for 23 years and currently serving as a Senior Vice President and Branch Manager at Welch State Bank, Jeff's professional accomplishments are a testament to his dedication, leadership, and strategic thinking.

Outside of his professional and community commitments, Jeff cherishes his family life. He has been married to Marla for over 30 years, and together, they are proud parents of three children and one granddaughter. This loving and supportive family dynamic undoubtedly contributes to Jeff's ability to connect with and make a positive impact on the lives of those around him.
